Vector Security® Moving to Keystone Summit Corporate Park in November

Top Security Company Signs Long-Term Lease in Allegheny County

PITTSBURGH, PA, August 27, 2012 – Vector Security, one of North America's top electronic security companies, has signed a 12-year lease at Keystone Summit Corporate Park in Warrendale, PA for its 28,000 square-foot North American headquarters, effective November 2012.

The new Vector Security offices at Keystone Summit Corporate Park, formerly the Ericsson/Marconi/FORE System campus, will house 150 employees and the largest of the company's state-of-the-art Central Monitoring stations. Vector Security will also maintain a branch office in Warrendale on Allegheny Drive to serve residential and commercial customers in Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia and a Security Guard and Patrol office in Monroeville, PA.

"Pittsburgh has been the home of Vector Security for over 26 years," said Pam Petrow, President and CEO of Vector Security. "We are committed to this region and the customers we serve. We selected the Pittsburgh-area because it is a great place to live and work for our employees. This move reinforces that we are here to stay and look forward to providing quality security solutions for many years to come."

Vector Security's move was required to meet the changing demands of the security industry as well as position the company for future expansion. The new corporate headquarters will be located at 2000 Ericsson Drive and is located 15 miles northwest of downtown Pittsburgh.

"We are excited to welcome Vector Security to Keystone Summit Corporate Park and are confident that this facility will serve the company well in addressing both its current and future space requirements," stated Rich Gottlieb, Senior Vice President of Keystone Property Group, owner of Keystone Summit Corporate Park. "This property has been strategically repositioned by Keystone and the result is a high-quality, premier business environment for tenants."
